

DAY THREE

Did you know that the Lord has uniquely placed you and prepared you to share within a circle of influence that remains unexplored? There are people whose lives you can touch that will only open to you as you begin to seek Him more fervently.

Some of you are seeking the Lord on whether or not you should serve Him on the mission field. If you follow Him in obedience, He will open a channel for you to speak into the lives of those you have never met. Because of who you are in Christ, you will have the opportunity to lead others to the point of making a decision for Him. Not because of your accomplishments, not because of how you worship, your church attendance, or how often you are in the Word, but because you are His...a reflection of Him.

The harder you seek Him, the closer to His heart and His will you'll be drawn. Then the more of His will for your life you will discover. Obedience will come much more quickly. At that point you will find yourself drawn to His hem. Seated before Him in reverent awe, you will want to be in the Word more, want to pray more desperately, want to be found in routine obedience.

The result of this will be more lost souls won for the Kingdom! Are you ready to see this come to pass?

“Seek the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near.” Isaiah 55:6

Seek Him! Not stuff, but Him! His desires will change you, His precepts will shape you, His heart will beat in your body, and you will cause ripples of change in the world you touch. This will not happen if you do not surrender! Get on your face and give Him your all.
