

Brent Higgins

DAY SEVEN:

God has called us to be fishers of men. For people who enjoy fishing, that immediately draws a visual that they can identify with. For people like me, who don't fish, it brings a little different view.

I have not spent a lot of time with a pole in my hand at the shores edge, hoping to hook the big one. However, I have spent lots of time in the United States and other countries, praying over and sharing Christ with the lost. I have found that some of these people are ready to receive Christ as He is shared and others are not. Some need more time to think things through. Then at the right time the Holy Spirit will move on them.

Like the disciples in Scripture, we need to be ready to gather those who the Holy Spirit is moving over. The idea of a net allows for the escape of those who are not ready and the drawing in of those who are. You are the tool God wants to use.

As you surrender yourself to Him and as you seek the Lord as Jeremiah 29:13 speaks of, "with all of your heart," He will use you in His power to draw in the lost. Are you ready to serve that way? Are you ready to go? We are ready to partner with you to see the Salvation of Christ taken to every nation!